The peach trees they are loaded
The limbs are bending down
I pick 'em all day for a dollar, boys,
As I go rambling around
As I go rambling around

Sometimes a fruit gets rotten,
Falls down on the ground
There's a hungry mouth for every peach,
As I go rambling around, boys
As I go rambling around

My mother hope that I would be,
A garl of some renown
But I am just a refugee,
As I go rambling around, boys
As I go rambling around
